

Calmer Canine™ SAMPLE Request

Congratulations! You have been selected to be among the first to use the Calmer Canine Anxiety Treatment System to help treat canine separation anxiety. Welcome to the Calmer Canine Sample Program. We are excited to send you your complementary Calmer Canine sample, valued at $249 - $269 (retail).

We are very interested in your feedback and that of the pet owner whom you choose to receive the sample (if other than yourself). In exchange for receiving this sample, we ask that you agree to provide us with the following in return:

1. Pet owner completion of our on-line screening Quiz for separation anxiety, prior to starting treatment. Here is a link to the Quiz: <https://www.calmerk9.com/separation-anxiety-quiz/>
2. A photo of the dog being treated with Calmer Canine. Before and after videos are ideal as well but are not required.
3. Pet owner completed "Anxiety Progress Tracker"
4. Pet owner and veterinarian completed "User Experience Questionnaire" following treatment.

These documents can be found on this link: <https://assisianimalhealth.com/calmer-canine-sample/program>

We will need to receive these items within eight weeks of shipping out the device to you. If we do not receive these items in the allotted time, you agree to allow Assisi to charge your credit card for the device at the veterinarian's introductory price of $189 (for XS/S or M size) or $209 (for L/XL size). See page 2 for sizing instructions.

I (type your name here) _____ agree to allow Assisi Animal Health to bill my credit card for the Introductory Price of Calmer Canine if I do not complete the requirements within eight weeks of the sample being shipped out to me.

I also grant to Assisi Animal Health, and all its subsidiaries, the right to use and reproduce my name and/or the name of any animal under my care and any of the following belonging to myself and/or any animal under my care: image, likeness and voice, all photographs, recordings, videotapes and any biographical material I may provide in the form of writings, statements or quotations about the animal or myself (the 'Materials') in any manner, form or format whatsoever, now or hereafter.
